New Line Theatre's 32nd season includes three great musicals!

JESUS & JOHNNY APPLEWEED'S
HOLY ROLLIN' FAMILY CHRISTMAS

World Premiere, Grandel Theatre, Nov. 30-Dec. 16, 2023

What happens when a family's secrets are all revealed on one outrageous, marijuana-fueled Christmas Eve in 1959? Poor Harry Goodson is about to find out, as he's visited overnight by his dead brother, Jesus Christ, Sandra Dee, and Johnny Appleweed, and he finally learns what his family already knows, that the answer to all his problems is marijuana! A wacky companion piece to the unintentionally hilarious 1936 scare film Reefer Madness, this new musical is a tongue-in-cheek response to the War on Drugs, a comic look at what a little pot and a little truth can do to a normal, Midwestern, American family, just as America plunges into the chaos of the 1960s.

SWEET POTATO QUEENS

Regional Premiere, Marcelle Theater, Feb. 29-Mar. 23, 2024

Get ready for the outrageous, high-powered, Southern rock musical that tells the true story of "Boss Queen" Jill and her closest friends in Mississippi, and how they learn to grab life by the sequins, feathers and tiaras to live their lives out loud, on their own terms. This sizzling new musical is based on the wildly successful Sweet Potato Queens books by Jill Conner Browne, with music by pop icon Melissa Manchester, lyrics by hit country songwriter Sharon Vaughan, and a book by Rupert Holmes (The Mystery of Edwin Drood).

DRACULA

Regional Premiere, Marcelle Theater, May 30-June 22, 2024

Broadway songwriter Frank Wildhorn (Bonnie & Clyde, Wonderland, Jekyll & Hyde) delivers his most epic score for this riveting, fast-paced, Gothic rock opera, faithful to the iconic novel but with some unexpected twists and turns. As much a tragic love story as a thriller, this version of the story dives deep into the powerful, shattering emotions of these characters and these complicated relationships, as only musical theatre can. For Dracula, Wildhorn reunites with his Bonnie & Clyde lyricist Don Black, for one of the wildest and most emotional rides you've had in the theatre in a long time.
